COPPER STOCKS SHAKE IN BOSTON.

BOSTON, June 5 .- Enormous liquidation and marked feverishness characterized trading on the Boston Stock Exchange to-day. The market opened lower, but rallied, only to be carried down again under a flood of sales among the copper shares. Amalgamated, which easily commanded the bulk of attention, opened here at 51 1-2 and on the secon sale touched 51 1-4.

Supporting orders lifted it as high as 52 5-8, but constant fluctuation, within two points, followed. Nearly 10,000 shares of Amalgamated changed hands up to hoon.
